

Lives of great men all remind us

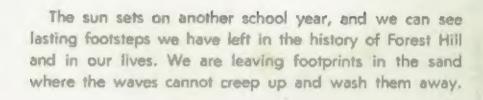

We can make our lives sublime,

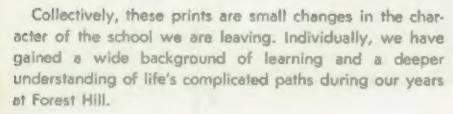

And, departing, leave behind us

Footprints on the sands of time.

-Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Like one grain of sand, by ourselves we are insignificant. But united, gathered together, with our various talents, personalities, and differences, we become a driving force. We can create, develop, invent, discover. Someday, our contributions may become the basis for an idea which will leave a lesting impression on our world.

In the year past we have experienced both good and bad days. Yet looking back, some days seem to be Illuminated by rays of sunlight. The excitement of football games, the action of basketball games, the dances, the assemblies, the candlelit prom, the mixed emotions of graduation. Ahead of us, the future is waiting with new experiences and opportunities.

An expanding school system like Palm Beach County's demands a strong educator with experience, wisdom, and interest in control.

Palm Beach County students, teachers, and administrators are fortunate in having Mr. Robert W. Fulton as Superintendent of Schools.

A high moral character, a broad educational background, successful teaching experience, the ability to get along with the public, definite views on the value of good educational systems, and a determination to see that Palm Beach County schools are tops—these are a few of the qualities Mr. Fulton possesses.

Keeping abreast with the latest educational theories and methods, Mr. Fulton demands that the supervisory personnel and administrators implement those new techniques which are considered advantageous to the educational growth of the schools.

As top man in a really big business—training our youth to step into responsible positions as adults—Mr. Fulton devotes his time and energy to insuring the continued improvement of the county schools.

The Board of Public Instruction sets the pace for the students in the climb to a successful future.

This five-member group of local business and professional men, elected by the public to a four-year term, is responsible for the operation of the schools according to county and state policy. The board members set the school policies, supervise the educational program, and issue contracts to personnel.

Behind us we leave our footprints. The tide rises and ebbs but our footprints remain. The future awaits us like a clean beach—we may leave our footprints where we wish.

MR ROBERT RIGGS

An innate desire of an athlete is to prove himself—not only to himself, but to others as well. He feels the need to belong, and once he does, he becomes an integral part of his team. He knows too, that his best effort is worthless unless the whole school is behind the team in one great effort to win, for that is the only reason he gives his best. Stars are few, but he feels a warmth in knowing that in some way his tiny effort made the victory possible

Under the direct supervision of Mr. Robert Riggs, Forest Hill has been able to maintain a high standard in athletic competition. He and his outstanding coaches have instigated a constant desire for victory in all sports.

Homecoming activities were brought to a climax on Kettler Field November 23 1966, with the Falcons playing host to Palm Beach. The Wildcats came out the winner in the hard fought contest 14-12. Ha filme festivities featured last year's queen, Beth Hobson, crowning Mary Lou Sparks as Homecoming Queen for 1966-67. Members of the court were Cindy Trefry escorted by Glenn Winkler. Lish Rickett, escorted by Woody Rice, Lanet Bentz, escorted by Ken Thompson, Brenda Billings, escorted by Jim Herrick. The Queen was escorted by Frank Balis.

Even with the able leadership of coaches Jim Nicholson, Bill Davenport, Jerry Jacobs, head coach, Abner Bigbie, and Frank Springer, the Falcons were unable to finish the season with a record better than four wins, five losses, and one tie. Spirit—A gift to the student body from the eight most spirited Falcons, the Forest Hill cheerleaders. The eight girls—Chris Smith, Mary Lou Sparks, Janet Bentz, Tish Rickett, Helen felsing, Georgette Chalhub, Libby Owen, and Susan Miller—sponsored by Miss Mildred Crickenberger, spark Falcon spirit at peprailies, games, bonfires, with announcements, and on bus trips.

Spirit and enthusiasm, displayed by the cheerleaders, have become synonymous with FHHS this year. Chanting victory cries at pep rallies and games, these eight spirit boosters have increased participation in all school activities. With limitiess energy they set up a student body as one of the most highly spirited anywhere. They have encouraged good sportsmanship while cheering for victories and have rejoiced when Forest Hill achieved both

MR JAMES W WESTEROOK Dean of Bays RS Appolachian State Teachers College M Ed Jawars Is at Miss ti pp

As Forest Hill's assistant principal Mr. Herschel Chaney's major job is to aid in fulfilling administrative tasks and to lend other needed assistance. He is familiar with every espect of student and teacher life.

Operation of the Data Processing machine ("affectionately" known as The Monster), as well as responsibility for student scheduling, falls under his efficient supervision.

Personal advice and assistance may be received from Mr. James Westbrook, Dean of Boys, and Mrs. Violet E. Gunby, Dean of Girls. They deal directly with the student through such matters as attendance, conferences, explanation of school rules, and illnesses. The deans are always willing to lend a helping hand, and they strive to overlook no student.

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT

Numerous essential services are provided by the personnel of the Guidance Department, Mr. Harold Brake, Mrs. Bernice Granger, and Mr. Wayne Fortenberry. These services include information, orientation of new students, and the administering of the Senior Placement Test, PSAT, SCAT and other examinations

For the purpose of determining progress, the counselor plans one conference each semester with the individual student. This also gives the assigned counselor an opportunity to discuss with that student any questions or problems he may present concerning high school, college or career

The secretaries perform many tasks essential to the needs of faculty and students. Every office operates efficiently as a result of their work.

Important jobs and problems of the main office are expertly handled by Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. Wilks. These services include handling the payroll, keeping records, making appointments, and taking dictation.

The school treasurer, Mrs. Alien, is responsible for all monies collected, bills to be paid, and accounts for clubs and department

Scheduling students, issuing report cards and preparing attendance bulietins are among the duties performed by Mrs. Robson, data-process clerk. Mrs. Feol, secretary in the Guidance Department, takes care of permanent records, college transcripts, medical forms and papers for withdrawals and new students.

All of the secretaries share the work of locating students, answering telephone calls, and scores of other incidental services

LIBRARY

Between the covers of a book there are pages which contain treasures of unsurpassed value. These are the jewels of thought and knowledge, which have been formed by the tremendous pressures within the mind. Perhaps it is unique that the treasures of a book are never withheld from those minds that go in search of their secrets and tarry to dwell upon the pages.

The library at Forest Hill is indeed a refuge for seeking minds. It is kept vibrantly alive by the refreshment of ideas contained within new volumes. Indeed, there is no lack of material at Forest Hill High to encourage the forward march of learning.

The greatest aim of the BUSINESS EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

is to prepare students for the future. This future may be a professional position, therefore requiring a knowledge and practical application of business skills

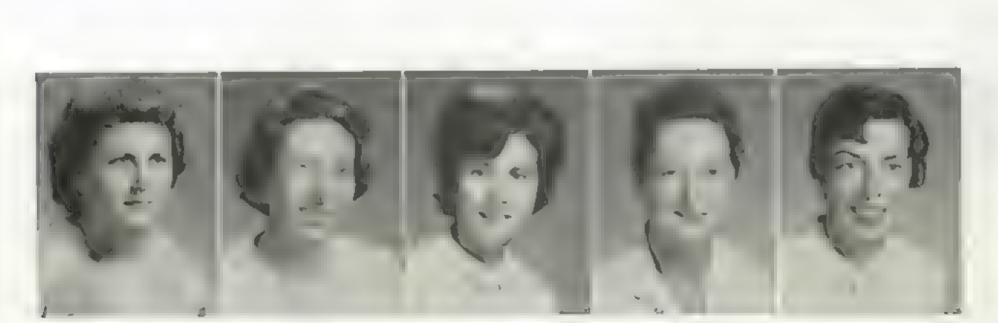

Even if a professional position is not expected in a student's future, he will find it helpful to develop a usable skill-shorthand, typewriting, bookkeeping-for he may be enabled to apply that skill in later life.

Business education teachers feel that everyone should have a knowledge of business and industry. Accordingly, their goal is general education in that field as well as in skills; their hope, that students may later leave an imprint in the sands of commercial success.

As we seniors take our leave of Forest Hill High School, we wish to stop a moment and reminisce about our three years at Forest Hill and relive some of our fondest memories.

In late August, 1964, we gathered as sophomores in the gymnatorium, eager for whatever lay ahead of us, perhaps a little frightened, too. We spent most of our time learning, observing, and setting our goals to be carried out in our junior and senior years. Our upperclassmen were ever present to guide our infant footsteps

Our junior year marked another footprint in the sands of time John Ayoub, class president, led us in topping last year's sales in the annual Junior Magazine Drive, held to finance the Junior-Senior Prom at Whitehall in May to honor the graduating seniors.

On August 29, 1966, we began the last lap of our high school career. The year ahead of us was to be one of hard work and activities we would remember all our lives. Mark Sipperly was elected to lead us in our ventures

Forging onward, we began our last year with enthusiasm as we sponsored the "Get Acquainted" dance, held especially for the incoming sophomores

The talent show staged in February was a first for the senior class. Talent Scouts Neal Starkman, Chris Ferri, Lorraine Ljunggren, and Robert Carr uncovered the talented students from each class to present the fabulous Club '67

Under the leadership of Mr. John Snider, the Senior Class Play was presented in April as our biggest moneymaking project. The entire class participated in the publication and organization of the memorable play "The Miracle Worker."

Throughout the year we were busy ordering cards and invitations and measuring for caps and gowns. Outstanding seniors were honored at Class Night, another memorable event as the year drew to a close.

Baccalaureate brought mingled emotions as we seniors began to realize that soon our high school days would be over

Finally, on graduation night, we received our diplomas and it was all over but the memory. We took one last look at all the joy and sorrow we had experienced during our high school years, and we wished we could explain to those remaining the value of those anxious moments—all a part of our high school years which are but footprints in the sands of time.

Class of 1968

An enthusiastic group of junior boys and girls, a dynamic leader, an active Junior Board, and interested, reliable sponsors—these were the ingredients that made the Class of 1968 enjoy such a busy and successful junior year

The juniors made a deep imprint in the history of Forest Hill High School by setting a new school record of $6551.69 magazine subscriptions sold during the annual January Magazine Drive—the big money-making project of the class

"Whispering Palms," soft music, delicious food, decorations in blue and silver, pink sweetheart roses, beautifully gowned girls, tuxedo-clad young men, smiling faces, flowers, mingled perfumes, moonlight, fabulous memories—these lasting impressions were created by the Class of 1968 at the always thrilling and long-anticipated Junior-Senior Prom at the Whitehall May 19 honoring the seniors.

Receiving their class rings made these young people realize that the end of carefree school days would soon end

These active young people now look ahead to their final year at Forest Hill, filled with the excitement, thrills, sorrows, and hard work that means a senior year well done

Junior Sponsors: Mr. Anthony E. Oliver, Chairman, Mrs. Etma K. Milligari, Miss 5h riey Jackson, Mr. Allan U. King, and Mr. John G. Abbott

The members of the Class of 1969 got their feet wet as senior high school students at their special Orientation assembly in August, prior to the opening of the regular 1966-67 school year.

During their sophomore year, these young people waded into life at Forest Hill High School with zest and became enthusiastic supporters of their school,

The sophomores now look forward to taking a more active part in Forest Hill's activities when they acquire the status of juniors-and thus become eligible to plunge into more school events.

Student Council

The Student Court strives throughout the year to serve all phases ut allocal te through the promotion of school spirit student participation in activities, and an appreciation and understanding of representative government inherent to our democratic way of life. In addition, the Student Council attempts to assist in the formulation and regulation of school policies and rules.

The activities of the Student Council are many and varied. They range from the every day supervision of the halls during such to the spon orship of a new experience—the computer dance. In addition are such projects as buying a Christmas tree with the Kevette, for the cateteria, the poke-tre will all contest and the operation of the bookstore. As a ds to rommunication, the Student Council sponsored both the suggestron box and the cafeteria bulletin board. One major project that the Council undertakes is the supervision of all student elections.

The council attained a new height of recognition and leadership during the year by its election to the position of V President of District 5 of the Florida Association of Studient Councils

Diversified Cooperative

DCT students work diligently in the Christmes Seel drive.

Training Club

The bus rides are the relexing part of the conventions before the work

To promote a better relationship between students, their employers, the school, and the community is the main objective of the DCT Club.

During the past year, the DCT Club has striven to attain its goal by promoting school spirit through the sale of booster buttons and car decals. At the end of the year, the members attend an Employer-Employee Banquet with their employers as their guests. The DCT Club serves the community by he ping with the preparation of Christmas seals for distribution by the Tuberculosis Society, along with other civic projects.

In developing character, scholarship, and leadership among its members, the DCT Club has truly lived up to its motto, "Today we follow, tomorrow we lead . . . "

The Singing Falcons have contributed much to the spirit of Forest Hill by participating not only in school functions but also by representing Forest Hill throughout our community. In the past they have represented our school in District and State contests, 1000 Voices at Christmas, the All-County Choral Festival, and the All-State Contest. By doing these and many other services, the Singing Falcons not only have strengthened their own musical talent and ability but also have tried to interest others in the various fields of music

Lionette Club

The Lonelle Club's motto. "We Serve," professes the service that has been shown this year by this club. The year began for them as guides at the annual Sophomore Orientation Day. The Lionettes supervised the welcoming and attempted to put across the FH feeing of friendliness. This was followed by Homecoming. The Lonettes supervised all in their Toyland skit (which took first place) and their enormous whale ground display.

A favorite event of the year was the conette Facuity Christmas Tea highlighted by a luscious array of good es and gifts for teachers and the arrival of Santa Claus.

Money-making projects include the traditional Lionette Homecoming corsages in car wash, a bake sale, the colorful Sadie Hawkins Dance in May, and the sale of Forest Hill sweatshirts.

Lionettes are equally active in events of the Southside Lions Club.

The Lonettes attempt to serve others, and in doing so to spread a warm atmosphere of friendliness. They strive to do their best—not to be best, but to try.

Jr. Civitan Club

Through unself shipservice and undaunted desire for success, the Junior Civitan Club continues to fulfill its motto of "Builders of Good Citizenship" in both school and community. One of the many school projects was the maintenance and operation of the fountain and patio adjoining the cafeteria.

The Civitans annually present the Robert Watkins Memorial Scholarship to a deserving senior. The funds for this scholarship are raised through Civitan Candy Sale Claxton Fruit Cake Sale and Civitan Surf Stomp, the most widely attended dance of the school year.

Each year Civitan international presents awards to the most productive Civitan Clubs in the state at the annual convention in Miami. The Forest Hill Civitans pride themselves on being on or near the top of the awards ist each year.

Keyette Club

The 1966-67 school year has been a busy one for the members of the Keyette service club. The Keyettes started their year with a service to the teachers by providing refreshments in the faculty lounge for a day. Other projects during the year were putting spirit posters in homerooms, helping with the Alsac drive, he ping the NFL with a speech tournament, ushering at Municipal Stadium for the Golden Palm festival, picking up I cense plates for the teachers, singing Christmas carols at hospitals at Christmastime, and their most important, the scholarship to the lunior college at the end of the year

Money making events throughout the year include rummage sales, bake sales, car washes, and back rest rentals at athletic events.

The highlight of the year came in November when the Keyettes, in a joint effort with the Key Club, produced the First place float with the fille "Tortoise and the Hare" Another highlight was the club's annual Mistletoe Ball with music by the fabulous Rude Awakenings. It was at this all school semi-forms, that President Cindy Trefry announced Randy Lyon as the "Keyette Man" for the year 1967.

The Keyettes' year ends with a service project to the teachers by helping them get ready for the summer on the day after school closes.

The Key Club

Through its program of service and friendship the Key Cub assumes an important role in the development of the future leaders of America

This year, the Key Club calendar came out in December; the Sweetheart Ball was more of a success than in past years. A full color surfing movie and a spaghetti dinner were two more of the Key Club's annual projects

Each year, the Key Club paints and repairs benches around the school. They also honor the faculty when they observe "Youth Salutes Their Teachers Day" at an all-school assembly which they present with the Keyettes

Z Club

Growth through Service' is the Z Club's motto and the basis for all projects undertaken. Assisting the Heart Fund, the County Nutritional Committee and the Alsac Drive gave the club a chance to aid in the betterment of the immunity. An annual project of washing desks in classrooms was undertaken. Assisting teachers, working in the refreshment stand at football games, and serving at as emblies add to school spirit and understanding. A Z Club patro and bench have also been established on the school grounds.

Working in a group and going to this in together unites the members of the Z Club in improving life at home, at school, and in the community

French Club

I Etcie de la Culture Francaise is a club established for the purpose of enriching the student's knowledge of France, her people, language, and culture

Meetings are vely spiced with student talent including songs and skits in French Occasionally travel films or slides are shown, and special guest speakers are invited to address the members.

As a subject interest club the French Club uses membership dues to purchase French books for the library or to buy special language materials for the French department for use in the dasses.

German Club

Deutsche Verein, the newest club of Forest Hill High School's language department, has now completed its first year. The purpose of this club is to enable German students to meet and to enlarge their interests and knowledge of Germany, its people and its language, outside of the classroom. Membership is open to second-year students and eligible first-year students

Two of the club's projects were the giving of a Christmas food basket to a needy family and the giving of gift packages of pretzels to the teachers at Christmas.

Although a new club, the Comitia Latina has proven itself to be the most unusual organization on campus. Our main purpose is to perpetuate the Roman language and customs, but at the same time, we have succeeded in relating these interests to Forest Hill and its activities. This was shown by our participation in Skit Night, the annual Latin Club movie. The high ight of the year was the Comit a Latina banquet, in the true Roman tradition, complete with slaves from the lower Latin classes and a play featuring Rome as it was.

Spanish Honor Society

The 1966-67 year of the Spanish Honor Society got off to a good start as new members were installed in the library on December 4, 1966. During a successful and active year, this organization cooked a Christmas dinner for under-privileged families. They also made enchiladas for adult Spanish Honor Society was established in 1964. #### Pep Club

This organization is devoted to the cause of bettering school spirit. Members learn the main cheers from the cheerleaders and sit together at pep rallies and games. You will always find these enthusiastic girls on hand to liven up the student body, waving shakers and cheering loudly.

Their money-earning project is the selling of pep tags for the students to wear.

The Pep Club also sponsors the pep bus to out-of-town games.

Education is the key to not only your own personal success but to the future of our country. It is becoming more apparent each year that the youth of our country is going to need more and more formal education, not only to compete in today's complex world, but also to insure the continuance of the American way of his. Only by having a well-informed and knowledgeable citizenry can the great heritage and potential of America be realized.

Does going to college pay?

Yes' The US Census Bureau estimates that the average college graduate will earn $170,000 more during his working lifetime than a high school graduate. A college diploma pays dividends!

As our country grows ever more technological, a solid educational background becomes increasingly important in shaping your career

Congratulations and best wishes to the Class of '67. Go forward with Florida in the exciting and stimulating years ahead More power to you'
